7 The rules have been scrutinized with the assistance of Mr N. Muthanna. It has been deemed desirable to recast the rules & revise them in some respects with due regard to the rules of season 1915. A typed copy of the rules is subd for approval & the pencil numbers B_1, B_2 etc indicate similar rules in Mr Whitehead's draft. —

8 A few alterations suggested for consideration & adopted in the Typed Copy are noted below

(1) Sd. The Suptdt's Rules are made to apply for the season 1916 only. Last year's rules of were for one year tentatively there seems no reason to adopt a fresh set of rules for each year The rules are made general & provision is made to modify them when necessary —

(2) Reserved accommodation. The 1915 rules & the Superintendent's present rules provide for reserved accommodation in Cunningham Bungalow only — such accommodation is now proposed to be extended to other Bungalows also on a fee of Rs 30/- This will be to the convenience of the ordinary visitors to whom rent is a matter for consideration.

(3) Mr Bhishtopanti's rule 16 provides for levy of fee for Maitry's services in Cooks. Mr Madhavrao does not think this necessary & it is omitted

(4) Rule B 18 — Charges for heated Water omitted as it is provided for in Rule 9 (a) Typed Copy.

(5) The charge for Water is fixed with reference to a pot instead of a Vessel as in Mr Bhishtopanti's rules. 21.

(6) Mr Bhishtopanti's rule 22 regarding the different Courts to the hills is omitted as unnecessary —.

To

D. M. Narasinga Rao, Esq., B.A., B.L.,
Secretary to the Government of His Highness
the Maharaja of Mysore, General Department, Bangalore.

Sir,

I have the honor to forward herewith a copy of the revised " Rules for the guidance of the visitors " to the Nandi Hills, during the approaching season and to request that you will be good enough to obtain the approval of the Government for the revision made, and for publishing it in the Gazette. Rs 400 copies of the same may kindly be arranged to be printed and supplied to this office for distribution.

The whole set of rules have been recast with slight alterations necessitated by the experiance of last season, the main points on which the revised rules differ from the past, being as follows:-

(a) Accommodation.- The number of batchelor's quarters have this year, been reduced by adding on, more roors to make up suitable The previous distribution was not found convenient to visitors, and in one case, there was an actual complaint. Hence this redistribution.

(b) Last season, visitors had to pay an additional rent for accommodating their wives in the same suite of rooms. This season, the rent on this account has been removed. The rate of 6 annas for each bed in Sankey's bungalow has also been reduced to 4 annas, to attract larger nurber of the ordinary middle class people. Visitors already complain of high rents on the hills. Hence these alterations.

(c) Indian Hotel rates.- There were no first class boarders boarders last year and so, this class is abolished now. The rate for the remaining class was fixed inclusive of tiffin served. This year season, the rate for the meal has been separated from that for the tiffin, to give greater option to visitors.

(d) Maty's services.- No specific mention was made in the rule last year regarding the loan of Maty's services to visitors, though actually such services were lent. This years rules provides for it also.

(e) The roads to the hills have been more clearly defined and cost of conveyance, etc., specifically mentioned.

My signature appears below the rules, but I have done this only in token of their having been passed by me.
